

3) Lis le dialogue, souligne les noms d'animaux que tu trouves. Écris-les ensuite dans le tableau de la page suivante et traduis-les en français.

Sam, her dad, her brother Joey and Kelly are at the zoo.

- TIM: Dad, are we going to see monkeys?
DAD: Of course! We're going to see a lot of different animals.
TIM: Like elephants, tigers and leopards?
SAM: Yes, but also lemurs, foxes, camels ...
KELLY: Birds, tortoises, penguins ...
Later...
KELLY: Oh look at those lovely rabbits! How sweet!
TIM: Can we feed them?
DAD: No, we can't! Look at the sign.
SAM: I prefer rats, snakes and spiders! Let's go and see the invertebrates.
KELLY: Without me! You know I'm afraid of spiders, Sam!
I don't want to see them.
What's your favourite animal, Timmy?
TIM: Dogs. What about you?
KELLY: I love cats.

5) Lis les deux textes, repère les différences en soulignant les mots. Le premier texte est en anglais (comme celui que tu apprends à l'école) et le deuxième est en anglais « américain » (celui utilisé aux Etats-Unis).

Exemple : Dans la première phrase, le mot « couleur » est écrit « colour » dans le premier texte et « color » dans le deuxième texte.

Cherche les autres !

Hi, I'm Jack and I live in London. My favourite colour is grey and I love modelling and going to the theatre. I haven't got a driving licence but that's not a problem because I live near the city centre and I don't mind travelling by underground. When I have football practice Mum drives me in her taxi and Dad picks me up in his lorry!

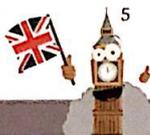

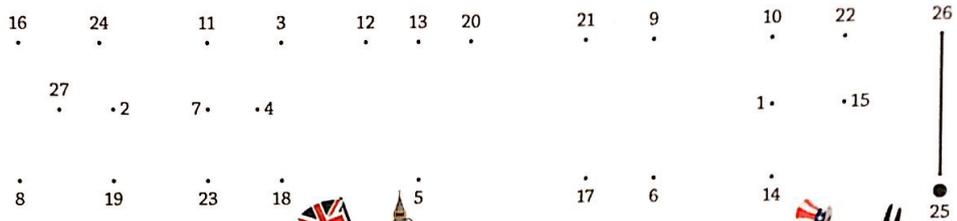

Hi, I'm John and I live in New York. My favorite color is gray and I love modeling and going to the theater. I don't have a driving license but that's not a problem because I live near the city center - or downtown as we say here - and I don't mind traveling by subway. When I have soccer practice Mom drives me in her cab and Dad picks me up in his truck!
