

Bonjour à tous ☺

J'espère que vous allez bien et que la situation actuelle vous permet de vous reposer et de passer de bons moments malgré tout.

Dans tout ça, il faut quand même un peu penser à l'école... Il faut s'entraîner, continuer à progresser et surtout bien garder en tête tout ce que nous avons vu ensemble dernièrement. C'est le moment idéal pour se perfectionner, pour aller au bout des choses dans une (des) partie(s) de matière un peu moins bien comprise(s) ou un peu laissée(s) de côté.

L'objectif est donc uniquement de s'améliorer, pas d'apprendre de nouvelles choses, ni même d'être évalué.

Les exercices qui suivent sont des exercices d'entraînement et de révisions. Il est donc bien sûr autorisé (et même conseillé) d'utiliser le cours, le manuel, les synthèses, les fiches de grammaire, le lexique, etc. et tous les outils qui pourraient vous servir à réaliser cela du mieux possible.

Bon travail ! ☺

1) Lis le dialogue et souligne les mots en rapport avec l'apparence physique.

- Sandra: Strange, Victoria, you've got fair hair and blue eyes and your father is Italian.
- Victoria: No; not exactly. My grandmother is Italian but my grandfather is Belgian.
- Sandra: What does your grandfather look like?
- Victoria: He's very tall and slim. He's got fair hair going white now and a beard. His eyes are grey. He's a very good-looking man!
- Sandra: Just like your father. I think he's the most handsome man I've seen in ages...
- Victoria: Hey, wait a minute! Don't forget he's married!
- Sandra: Yes... I know. And your mother is very pretty : dark brown straight hair, blue eyes, nice legs(laughter), lovely face with a little nose. No wonder your father is still in love with her! What about your grandmother?
- Victoria: Oh, she's very small, she's got a round face, dark hair, black eyes. She wears glasses. She's got very small ears! My grandfather is always making fun of her ears!
- She's a little bit old-fashioned but she's a lovely old lady.
- Sandra: In my family we are all tall, and we wear glasses. And, we're all a bit too fat too!
- Victoria: No way! Maybe overweight but not fat.
- Sandra: Yes, I'm trying to lose some weight.
- Victoria: Okay. Stop eating my mother's cookies, then!
