Famous people are all around

*They are simply everywhere. A lot of them speak English.
Let's meet some of America's and Britain's most famous people:
the Celebrities!*

This is a picture of Jamie Oliver. He is also known as the 'Naked Chef'. He is a famous TV chef. He is not American; he is British. He is married to Juliette Norton. Together, they've got 5 sweet children: Poppy, Daisy, Petal, Buddy and River. They live in London. Jamie's got thirty restaurants all over the world. Five of them are in London.

Do you all know who I am? My name's Lisa Simpson. I'm eight years old. I'm an American so I speak English very well! I live with my parents in a lovely house in Springfield. My parents? They're the best! I love my mum: her name's Marge. She's very sweet. My dad's name's Homer. I've got a brother and a sister. Do you know their names? We've also got some pets at home: a dog and a cat. I think we're one big happy family.

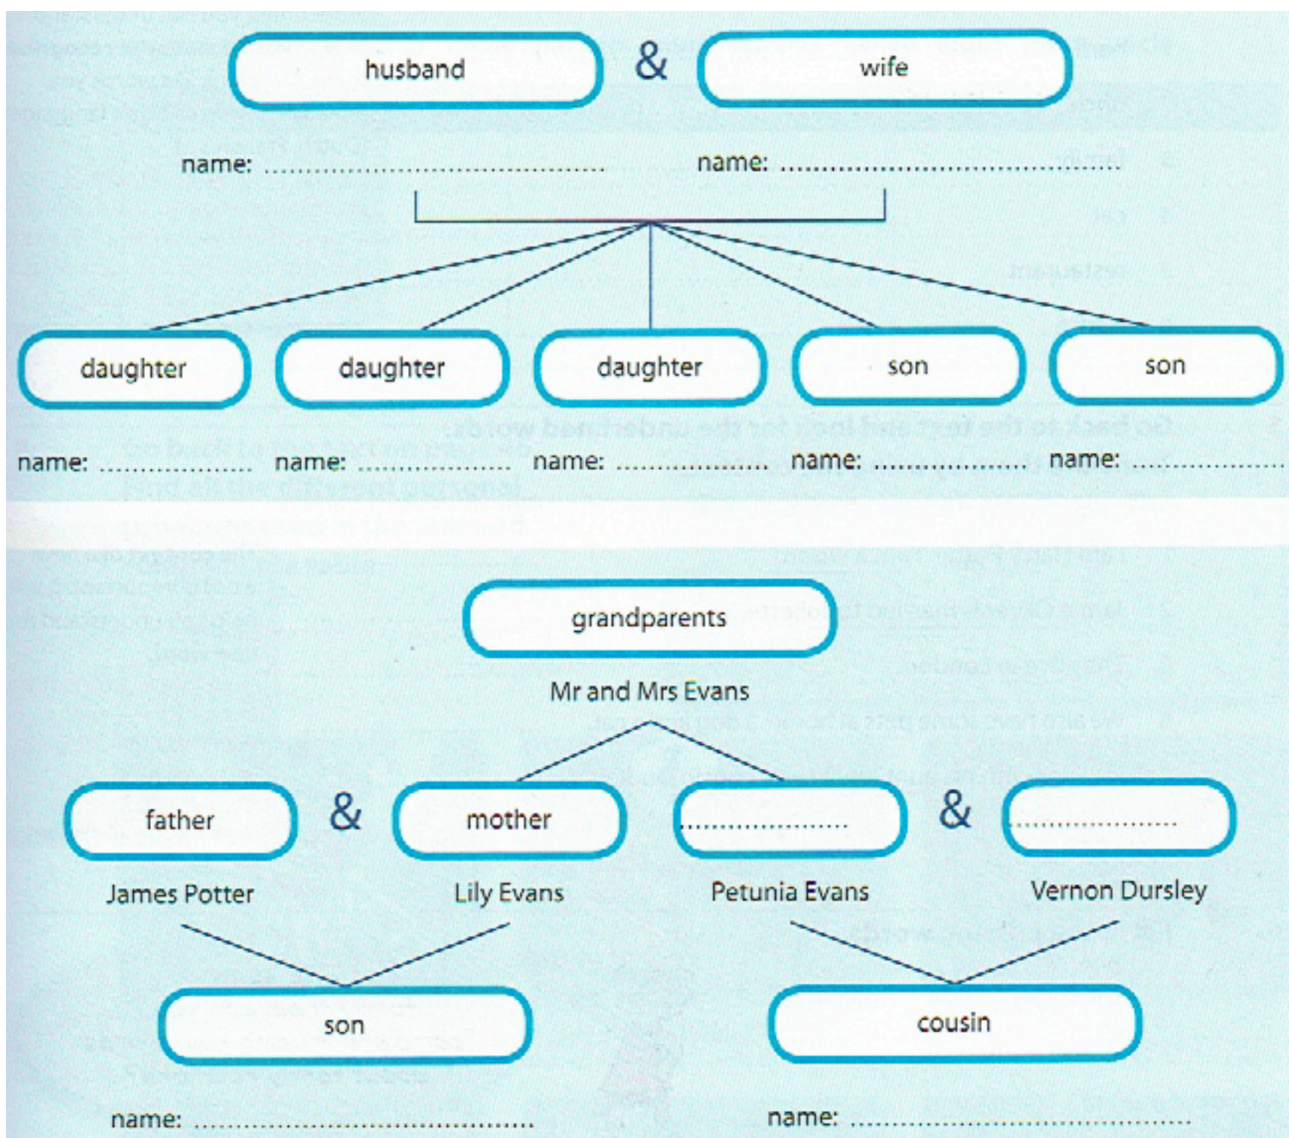

This here is the world's most famous wizard: Harry Potter. He's got two best friends: Ron and Hermione. They are always there when he needs them. His parents are dead, so he lives with his aunt, uncle and cousin Dudley during the holidays. He also stays with Ron's family from time to time. And Hermione?
